

Carrie Morgan

After receiving her Master of Fine Arts in Acting from the National Theatre Conservatory at the Denver Center for the Performing Arts, Carrie began teaching and directing at the University level first at Brigham Young University, and later at the State University of New York. She has directed theatre productions in Utah, California and New York. Her productions have been invited to present at the Kennedy Center's American College Theatre Festival, and have received awards nominations by the Bay Area Theatre Critics Circle Awards in California. Carrie's acting credits include film and commercial work, but her passions as performer and teacher, lie with the stage. She is pleased to be part of the SPA community.
